This is the about page that will display the mission statement and purpose of the website while pitching our business model to service and item providers to join our platform. This page and will link back to the login or main page

This is the main page of the website that, as shown, will display the featured manufacturer and their main product displayed in the featured panel along with other products from the manufacturer

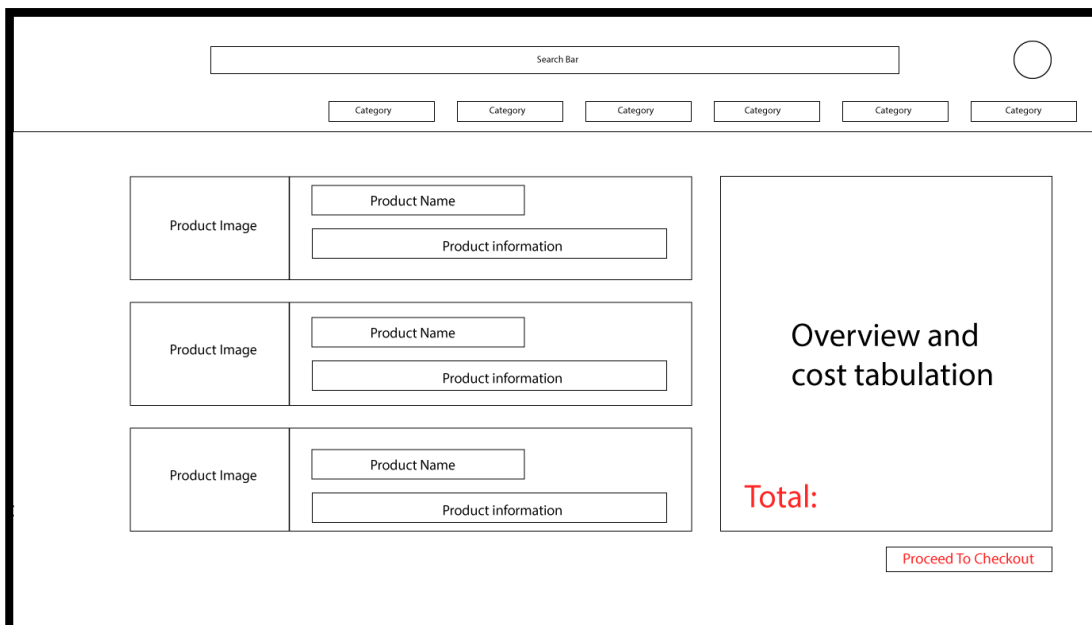

This page will link users to the product information page along with the various categories products from other manufacturers

The banner at the top will remain constant throughout most pages on the website.

This is the Product Information page. When the website user clicks on an item to get more information on the item this page will load and they'll be able to add it to Cart and to view more images of the product

As seen above the search panel is remaining constant

This is the Cart Page. This page is where users will get an overview of all the products in their cart and the total cost. They will then Proceed to Checkout to make a purchase
